Champagne and Wine

Champagne

2009/2008 Dom Pérignon, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its famous limestone soils and cold climate, makes the world's greatest sparkling wines. The most famous of them all is Dom Pérignon. DP, as it is affectionally known, is named after the Benedictine monk who pioneered many of the techniques used in Champagne today. Dom Pérignon is always from a single vintage and a blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir grapes. Dom Pérignon is now overseen by recently appointed Chef de Cave Vincent Chaperon.

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years, The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

White

2016 Gustave Lorentz Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, Alsace, France

Wine regions are often intensely beautiful, but there are few to compare with Alsace in northeastern France. Tiny villages that appear unchanged for a thousand years cling to slopes that delve in and out of valleys and clefts in the sombre, wooded Vosges mountains. On these sunny slopes are some of France's greatest Grand Cru vineyards. The Altenberg vineyard at Bergheim, now organically cultivated, has been Grand Cru since the 12th Century, and the Lorentz family have farmed it for 7 generations. Their Riesling is from old vines and is gloriously dry, with the quivering acid freshness of lemon pith and lime zest, all wrapped in the richness of honeycomb and the dusty golden warmth of a barley field at harvest time.

2017 Tapanappa Tiers Vineyard 1.5m Chardonnay, Piccadilly Valley, Australia

Over the last 40 years, the Adelaide Hills has emerged as one of Australia's finest cooler climate regions. Much of this is due to the vision and drive of one man- Brian Croser. In 1979, he planted the Tiers Vineyard which inspired a new generation of young winemakers to plant in this cool and picturesque region. Named 2004 Decanter Man of the Year, Croser remains one of the most respected names in wine. 1.5m refers to a small section of the Tiers Vineyard that was replanted using a lower vine trellis with a row width of only 1.5 metres. This wine has classic stone fruit characteristics, a tight acid line and wonderful intensity. An exciting wine from an important winemaker.

Red

2016 Albert Bichot Corton Grand Cru, Burgundy, France

The first traces of the Bichot family date back to 1214 -- the family's coat of arms has not changed since not has its symbol, a doe (biche). Albert Bichot joined the company in the 90s. He is convinced that good quality wine depends on good quality grapes. This Corton Grand Cru is grown on a vineyard with brown limestone soil overlying very clayey scree in the Cote de Beaune area. 100% Pinot Noir grapes are handpicked and aged in 100% oak barrels. These carefully controlled steps result in a truly quality wine with a subtle mix of smokey notes and spicy aromas with a light touch of liquorice on the nose. Fine and elegant, this robust wine also has a supple structure with harmonious tannins which give way to a long finish intensively flavoured by fruity notes.

2007 Château Léoville-Poyferré, Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

This splendid estate covering 80 hectares of vines in the best part of the Médoc was named a Second Growth in 1855 and has retained this high status ever since. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc are harvested at their peak of ripeness to make this classic Saint-Julien wine which has been described as "quintessential claret." Carmine-ruby in colour, with fragrantly intense aromas of red and black berries, this rich combination of fruit on the palate is balanced by an elegantly firm finish. 2007 is a vintage that is recognised for its charm and is eminently suitable for red meats and perfect with cheese.

2015 Sons of Eden "Remus" Shiraz, Eden Valley, Australia

Eden Valley, whilst technically part of the Barossa region, forms the higher and cooler section to the east. The red wines here are generally medium-bodied and restrained, rather than ripe and full. Shiraz performs exceptionally well in this region. Sons of Eden was founded in 2000 and is a partnership between viticulturalist Simon Cowham and winemaker Cory Ryan. Together, they have forged an excellent reputation as a producer of high quality, small batch, carefully-crafted wines made from sustainable vineyards. A medium-bodied red showing typical Eden Valley elegance, spiced plum characters, and softness.

Fortified

Dow's 20 Year Old Port, Douro, Portugal

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
